Kingsley McAdam is from Yorktown, VA and moved to DC after college where he met his wife, Elizabeth McAdam who is from Memphis, TN. The McAdam's joined All Saints in 2015 and have two boys. Cooke is three and a student at All Saints Preschool and Owen will be two in September. The McAdam's live in AU Park. Elizabeth previously worked in the White House and for Ford Motor Company and currently runs her own stationery business called Brake Ink. Kingsley works for local real estate development company Buchanan Partners. He manages development projects including mixed-use, multifamily, office, industrial, and retail space. Kingsley joined Buchanan Partners in 2004 and earned his MS in Real Estate Development from Johns Hopkins University.

Allie Cronin is the mother of an All Saints Preschool alumnae and has been a member of All Saints Church since 2013. After receiving an undergraduate degree in psychology from Dickinson College, Allie worked for KIPP DC Public Charter Schools as an early childhood teacher, working with both PreK 3 and PreK 4 students. She then went on to earn her Master's degree in Speech Language Pathology, with an emphasis in pediatrics from The George Washington University. She has spent the last year home raising her two daughters. Allie feels grateful for the time her daughter spent as a student at All Saints Preschool. The nurturing and encouraging environment provided her daughter with an outstanding experience during her first year of preschool. The school struck an appropriate balance between play and instruction, while also providing a faith based education. You may recognize Allie from starring role as the Virgin Mary in this year's Christmas Pageant.
